

EUROPEAN POWERS
ALL AGAINST USCABINET IS IN SESSION AT WASHINGTON TODAY.

The Apparently Concerted Action Against the United States the Cause of the Meeting—Nicaragua War the Theme Yesterday—The Big Canal Involved in the Proceedings.

Washington, March 20.—The cabinet met this morning and are now considering the concerted action of the European power against the United States.

Washington, March 20.—Just at present the administration is more concerned over the attitude of Great Britain toward Nicaragua and Venezuela than it is about the Alliance incident with Spain. At the White House cabinet meeting yesterday the complications were the principal topics under discussion. It was asserted that while England may not have made the demands alleged upon Nicaragua in the Hatch case, there was no doubt about the intention to do so at the earliest possible moment. At the state department, while it could not be stated definitely what was the tenor of the demand made by Great Britain, it was generally believed to be only in keeping with former actions by the government to obtain a foothold in Nicaragua and Venezuela. By pursuing obstructive tactics in these two countries the aim of Great Britain seemed to be for controlling not only the Nicaragua canal but the Orinoco river as far as possible.

One feature of the story about the British demands that did not seem to carry much weight in diplomatic and official circles arose from the statement that no citizen of the United States was to be permitted to serve on the commission to assess damages against Nicaragua. This was regarded as a fishy feature of the story and at the Nicaraguan legation, too, the declaration was made that the yarn never originated at Managua, as reported, but was manufactured in this country.

A phase of the troubles in the pan-American republics which has given considerable uneasiness to the administration grew out of the determination on the part of France to withdraw its diplomatic representative and send a gunboat to look after French interests. Representations were made directly and indirectly to the French republic that this sort of game would be playing right into the hands of its old enemy, Great Britain, and overtures have been made looking to a reversal of the plans set on foot by France. To make matters more interesting Russia has become an ally of France in this matter and solely for the purpose of preventing the schemes of Great Britain for personal aggrandizement and acquisition of territory on this continent.

There was a conference at the bureau of American republics yesterday between Dr. Guzman, the Nicaraguan minister, and Senor Rodriguez, counselor for most of the pan-American republics, regarding the publication of the demands made by Great Britain. When Mr. Rodriguez was seen last evening he stated in the most emphatic manner that he believed the story to be a manufactured one without even the semblance of truth in it.

PAUNCEFOTE NOT TOLD.

Has No Information Regarding the Nicaragua Ultimatum.

Washington, March 20.—The British embassy has received no information as to the ultimatum of Great Britain to Nicaragua for the payment of $75,000 within seven weeks in redress for the expulsion of Mr. Hatch, its consular agent, from Bluefields and of the dispatch of a British warship to back up the ultimatum. Under these circumstances it is thought in official circles the subject may be handled through British authorities in Nicaragua, although it is usual to advise the ambassador here on a demand of this moment. It is probable Ambassador Bayard will be instructed by cable to call the attention of the British government to the ultimatum addressed to Nicaragua and to ask for some expression in the nature of an explanation of the British purposes.

It is felt in diplomatic circles here that the signs are certainly ominous of approaching trouble in the south with British warships bound for Nicaragua to collect indemnity under duress, with a French war vessel bound for La Guayra, Venezuela, to take the expelled French minister aboard, leaving a wide breach of diplomatic relations, and with other European nations threatening to follow Great Britain's example in coercing the small Central and South American republics in the payment of debts and indemnities.

Window-Glass Trust Is Formed.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 20.—The proposed window-glass combination is a go. The Indiana manufacturers decided to advance prices regardless of what the national association does. It is expected all prices will be increased in a few weeks. Wages will be fixed hereafter by the national association.

Fears for Levels of the Lakes.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 20.—The Cleveland chamber of commerce yesterday took action regarding the Chicago drainage canal and its probable effect on the level of the great lakes. The chamber of commerce has received a report from a committee upon the proposed ship canal between Pittsburg and Lake Erie. It was to the effect that if such a canal was made it would be of mutual benefit to Cleveland and Pittsburg, but that the scheme was impracticable. The report was adopted.

COMBINES COAL INTERESTS.

Final Papers Signed on Behalf of Ohio Railroads and Operators.

Columbus, Ohio, March 20.—Final papers consolidating the entire coal interests of all the Ohio operators and coal carrying roads were finally completed and signed late yesterday afternoon, thereby accomplishing what will prove one of the greatest factors looking toward the return of prosperity of the bituminous coal interests of Ohio. This means perfect harmony covering the traffic of 8,000,000 tons of coal shipped over seven different roads, comprising a total mileage of 2,250 miles, and including 150 operators, the latter interests employing a force of miners to the number of 20,000 men. The competition has previously been so pronounced and demoralizing that the large consumers, both railroads and large manufacturers, assisted in the above results by giving the proposition their moral support, and all interests agree that ends have been attained that will prove of benefit directly and indirectly to the entire commercial interests of the country.

LI HUNG CHANG'S MISSION.

All the Details of China's Proposition for Peace Are Known.

Washington, March 20.—Li Hung Chang's arrival in Japan is regarded in official circles as one of the most significant events of recent days. It is the first time in his life the venerable statesman of China has set foot outside of Chinese soil. At his advanced age he now journeys to China's traditional foe to offer enormous concessions as means of securing peace. The general terms of Li Hung Chang's authority are to cede territory, pay a cash indemnity, grant the independence of Corea, and arrange new treaty relations with Japan by which Japan's extra territorial jurisdiction in China will be maintained. The exact amount of the cash indemnity is not fixed, nor is the kind of metal it is to be paid in agreed on. These and the boundaries of the ceded territory are yet to be arranged.

TORTURED BY ROBBERS.

Pennsylvanian Bound Head Downward and His Feet Burned.

Newcastle, Pa., March 20.—Word has reached here that five masked robbers entered the house of John McMillan, near Watts' Mills, bound and gagged the hired man and three women, and then waited nearly two hours for the return of McMillan. When he came he was bound to a board and leaned head downward against the wall, while the robbers threatened him with instant death unless he divulged the hiding place of his money. McMillan had deposited $1,000 in a bank the day previous. After burning his feet with hot coals and whipping him unmercifully the villains believed his story and departed. Mrs. McMillan and her daughters, who were compelled to witness the torture of McMillan, are in a very serious condition from fright.

Beloit, March 20.—This is a Grand Army day in Beloit and it is being observed by G. A. R. men from hundreds of miles around, who flocked to the city early in the day to catch a glimpse of Commander-in-Chief Lawler and his staff, and to listen to the speech making, recounting reminiscences of war days and participating in singing the songs that thrilled their hearts in their younger days. The exercises are being held in the opera house. At the session this afternoon it was impossible to get standing room and hundreds turned from the doors in disappointment. Gen. Fairchild was the first member of the staff to arrive, reaching the city this morning. Commander-in-Chief Lawler came at 3:30 o'clock and was met at the depot by the G. A. R. ## IN SPANISH WATERS.

Alliance Only a Mile and a Half from Cuban Shore.

Havana, March 20.—The name of the Spanish warship that fired on the American steamer Alliance is now known. It is the Spanish cruiser Conde de Venadito. This fact became public when the captain of the cruiser reported that he had tried to stop a strange steamer, and had opened fire on her course. According to the story of the Conde de Venadito's commander, the cruiser hoisted the flag and the steamer replied by raising her English flag. The commander claims that he did not desire to hit the steamer, but that he fired the shots merely to cause her to leave. He asserts that the steamer was but one and one-half miles off the coast when the firing occurred. The authorities have ordered a full inquiry. It is reported here that the Alliance carried 24,000 rifles south on the trip on which she was fired at, and that there were landed on the eastern end of the island some men who were passengers on the Alliance. These men, it is reported, were taken off the Alliance in fishing smacks the night preceding the firing.

During the fire W. L. Millington, aged 65 years, a watchman in the employ of the mill, fell through the roof of a building into the flames and was burned to death. The total loss is estimated at $300,000.

Chicago's Bill Passes.

Springfield, Ill., March 20.—For a time this morning things looked rather dubious for the civil service reform bill, and consternation prevailed in the ranks of the delegation of prominent citizens of Chicago, who came down as representatives of the civil federation in behalf of the measure. After an acrimonious debate the motion to advance the bill to a third reading was carried by a vote of 34 yeas to 6 nays, and made special order for tomorrow morning after reading of journal.

The senate then adjourned. For over two hours the house wrangled over Mr. Shaffer's bill to protect brewers and beer-bottlers. The bill makes it a misdemeanor for any one to be found in possession of empty kegs or bottle belonging to any brewing company, if it can be shown it is the intention of such person to sell them. At the conclusion of the debate the bill was placed on its passage and passed—yeas, 90; nays, 30. The house then adjourned.

The Spaniards lost but one man, a guide sergeant, killed. They also lost some horses. Saturday Senor Ferrer captured a large quantity of ammunition. The insurgents were led by the bandit Matos.

Desperate and Bloody Battle Fought at Bremen, Indiana, Yesterday.

Bremen, Ind., March 20.—There was a desperate encounter yesterday with a gang of desperadoes, resulting in the capture of six after a hard fight. Jacob Miller, a farmer, was held up by the gang at Littleton, a village seven miles north of here on the Wabash railroad, and robbed of a large sum of money. He traced the robbers to this city, where a warrant was issued for their arrest. Marshal J. C. Kaufman with two deputies proceeded to make the arrest and found the gang near the Baltimore and Ohio depot. In attempting to make the arrest the outlaws opened fire on the officers. Shots were exchanged rapidly from both sides. Citizens with revolvers and shotguns came to the rescue of the officers, when the gang fired promiscuously into the crowd and began retreating their way out of the city.

Marshal Kaufman during the street fight came near being shot down, a number of bullets passing through his hat and clothing. Frank Nehr, a United States express driver who happened to be driving along the street at the time, received a stray bullet through his hat, causing a slight scalp wound.

After an hour's chase by 100 armed men, six of the gang were captured and landed safely in the city jail. The jail is being guarded to prevent their escape or a lynching.

HAS A HOT ANSWER READY.

Spain May Call Attention to a Revenue Cutter Firing on Spanish Cubans.

Washington, March 20.—There is no further doubt as to the receipt by Secretary Gresham of a reply from Spain to his demand, but there is reason to believe the published reports have failed to state some important reservations made by Spain. One part of Spain's answer may consist in calling attention to a charge that in November a number of Spanish Cubans were fishing in the Gulf of Mexico when they were fired on by a United States revenue cutter, first with a cannon and later with small arms. This is alleged to have occurred twelve miles from land. The Spaniards were carried to New Orleans, where, it is said, the United States court for the southern district of Louisiana released them. Spain has not made thus far a protest, but may do so now that the United States has protested against firing on the Alliance.

Y., March 20.—In the Gibbs murder trial yesterday Charles Flanz, a gunsmith, was called to show how the cartridges were ejected from the pistols carried by the Robinsons on their highway robbery expedition. ## THURSTON NOT WANTED.

Secretary Gresham Makes a Demand for His Recall.

Washington, March 20.—Secretary Gresham has instructed Minister Willis to notify President Dole at Hawaii that his envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the United States, Lorin A. Thurston, is persona non grata to the administration, and his recall is demanded. The official recall for Minister Thurston's recall was made to the Dole government through Minister Willis. It was telegraphed to the state department's agent at San Francisco and forwarded to Honolulu per steamer of Feb. 21.

The instructions to Minister Willis are extremely positive in tone. They direct him to inform the minister of foreign affairs of Hawaii that Mr. Thurston has given copies of official correspondence to the press before they were furnished to the state department, especially referring to the dispatch of Feb. 13 referring to the sentences on conspirators. Minister Thurston gave as an excuse for his action that all matter concerning Hawaiian affairs was interesting to the people of the United States. On Secretary Gresham's representations that it was irregular and undiplomatic for foreign republics to communicate official information to the press before giving such information to the department Minister Thurston acknowledged his proceeding was not diplomatic and he orally apologized.

This was not sufficient for Secretary Gresham. He requested Mr. Thurston to make an apology in writing. Mr. Thurston refused. Thereupon Secretary Gresham formulated and sent the instructions to Minister Willis, directing him to request the recall of Minister Thurston. At the same time the secretary told Mr. Thurston that in his future relations with the department he desired all of his communications should be put in writing.

It can be authoritatively stated that the above is almost the text of the instructions sent by Secretary Gresham to the resident minister of the United States in Hawaii, notwithstanding the refusal of both the secretary and Minister Thurston to discuss the subject. There is no doubt in the official mind the request will be granted, as each government reserves itself the right to recognize a representative from a foreign nation or refuse to conduct official affairs with that nation through him.

COUNTY TALES TOLD IN A LINE OR TWO

AFTON FOLK DISLIKE TIME- CARD CHANGES.

Getting Chicago Papers Earlier Does Not Compensate For Lack of Facilities in Reaching the County Seat—Mill Sold—Porter School Exercises—News of East Center.

AFTON, March 19.—W. C. Phoenix grinds feed at the Afton mill no longer, his place being taken by that veteran in the milling business, John M. Matthews of Janesville. Mr. Phoenix will engage in the advertising business with G. R. Charles and will continue as a resident of Afton. It is becoming a common thing now for creameries situated at some distance from a milling point, to put in a feed grinding outfit for the benefit of their patrons. Ehler Brinkman, proprietor of the creamery on the town line road west of Janesville, is one of the latest to turn miller. We understand he has thus equipped his creamery. The Chicago dailies now reach us for personal at breakfast time, but Afton people are not thinking as much about that as they are at losing their mid-forenoon passenger for Janesville; for by the change effected last Sunday the 9:30 accommodation and the 10:45 passenger have been discontinued, and instead we have the "paper train" at 6:10 in the morning, while the 11:28 passenger runs as before. Those of our people, therefore, who wish to reach the county seat between those unreasonable hours, will go up to the crossing and board the 9 o'clock passenger on the C. & N. W. time-card at an early date. John W. Sharp will become a resident of Afton, moving into the Innman house recently vacated by the Putnam family. Fred Bartling and wife have moved from the Hills house and now reside in the Bartels house, on the north side. Carpenters Holzapfel and Kethelohn have been making needed repairs on the upper bridge, over Bass Creek.

Dinner and supper was served to the guests and dancing continued until 1 o'clock the next morning. Rev. Wills officiated. Sherman Lowry sold a fine horse to F. D. Kimball the past week. Charles Wilkie is putting up new buildings on his farm to take the place of those destroyed by fire. Mrs. G. Brown and daughter Nellie, are spending the week at Elgin. It is said that wedding bells will ring in the near future. Bernard Zickert and wife will start housekeeping on the Chris Zickert farm April 1. Spending a few days with his parents, Samuel Oleson is moving to Delavan, where he will reside the coming season. Mrs. J. L. Harper and son of Janesville, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. C. Crall. Charles Z. Crall delivered his crop of tobacco to the buyer today. It would seem that something should be done with a man that would kill a neighbor's dog with a pitchfork, before the eyes of the owner, and when the dog is minding his own business.

Blunk-Eldredge.

About three score guests assembled at the residence of W. H. Eldredge, one-half mile south of Afton, Tuesday, March 12, when, at high noon, to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Alice E. Eldredge, a bridal party took their station underneath an arch of evergreens, and Rev. A. W. Runyan, the Baptist pastor of Beloit, pronounced the words uniting Frank Blunk and Rose B. Eldredge as husband and wife. Miss Myrtle M. Eldredge, sister of the bride, and Miss Mabel E. Libbey, of Hebron, Ill., acted as bridesmaids, while Levi Atwood of Rockford, cousin or the bride, and her brother, Fred R. Eldredge, attended the groom. The bride was tastefully attired in a gown of dark green silk, and carried a large bouquet of elegant roses. After the ceremony had been performed and congratulations bestowed, the guests enjoyed a bountiful wedding repast. The presents were both numerous and beautiful. Artistically formed souvenir cards bearing a dainty knot of ribbon and the letters "B. E." in gilt monogram, with the date "March 12, 1894" also in gilt were given each guest. The young couple are well known in this vicinity having always resided here. They will make their home in Rock township, Mr. Blunk having rented the farm recently owned by C. H. Smith, situated about one and one-half miles north of Afton. The Gazette joins with many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Blunk long life and happiness.

A Chance To Save Money.

There is not the slightest reason why you should not feel well and strong. That great offer of Dr. Greene's is proving the best friend that weak and delicate people ever had. A letter sent to him at his office, 35 West 14th street, New York city, telling the symptoms you are suffering from, will be immediately answered by the doctor, describing your complaint minutely, and making you understand perfectly just what ails you. And all this costs you nothing. You don't have to leave your home and you don't have to pay any doctor's fee to learn exactly what your complaint is, and how to get well and strong. From Dr. Greene, the greatest living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor makes a specialty of curing patients through this great system of letter correspondence, and is having wonderful success. Thousands of weak, delicate men and women are writing him about their complaints, and are being permanently cured. It was he who discovered that world-renowned curative, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Write the doctor at once and see what he says about your complaint. It will probably be the means of your getting back your health.

Comparison of Prices.

A lady from Madison, accompanied by a lady friend in Janesville stepped into our store today to get some of the tinware we are selling so cheap. After selecting some buckets, pans, dippers, egg beaters and numerous other articles, and having them put into a pile, almost a wagon load, she asked for the amount of the bill and was told "$1.20." She turned to her lady friend almost out of breath and said: "My, did you hear that? $1.20 for all that tinware. I supposed it would be at least $4. It would have cost me in the neighborhood of $6 in Madison." Such events occur every day. This is the last week of this great sale. LOWELL HARDWARE CO.

Can You See The Point?

Eyesight is probably the greatest blessing given humanity, and yet no other gift is so maltreated. Just think that over 80 per cent. of human beings have eye defects, while 20 per cent have their eyes properly treated with eye-glasses. Mr. W. F. ## RUMORS OF WARS MAKE DOE HAPPY

THESE ARE GREAT DAYS FOR THE BRAVE "GENERAL."

Washington Full of Talk That Delights His Military Ear—Powder Burning, and Bloodshed May Come at Any Moment, and Then Think of What Would Happen to Foreign Powers

These are great days for General Joseph Bodwell Doe. Washington is full of war rumors and the Janesville soldier is full of hope.

It has been said that there is a "tide in the affairs of men," etc. The "general" is watching the newspapers closely. There may be w-a-a-r-r, and then—

Well, America has not had a soldier up to date. Washington, Grant, Sheridan and the rest of them were pretty fair in a fight, but as soldiers—well, they are not quite up to standard.

The outlook in the direction of bloodshed and powder burning and tears leads The Sentinel to print the following editorial:

"It is impossible for the outside world to know why Mr. Vilas, Mr. Wall, Mr. Joe Doe and one or two others are gathered together in Washington just now. It is equally impossible for the outside world not to conjecture. Had they met at midnight, on some island fastness in the Potomac, had they been rowed thither with muffled oars, had their communication been carried on through the agency of some little known language their meeting would have been more likely to touch the popular imagination. But there can be as much ingenuity in a room on the third floor of a hotel as on the loneliest island. The same power of far seeing conspiracy, the same subtle and statesmanlike craft, the same deep designing may be assembled in a prosaic restaurant or among surroundings the most romantic and picturesque.

Uniform Strikes Terrors.

"If there was a prospect of internal warfare, or a series of land engagements with a foreign power, it would be easy to understand why Gen. Doe should hold conference with himself, and even his taking counsel with his eminent friends would not be incomprehensible. But no such prospects are in sight. At home, all in peace. Abroad, our only possible adversary is more likely to make work for the secretary of the navy than for an assistant secretary of war. Therefore though Gen. Doe attends these conferences, he is probably not their inspiration. Even if he attends them in uniform his dress is probably worn more from love of beauty and fitness, from a feeling that a warrior, at least should be clad like a warrior, from a desire to gratify the aesthetic taste of his companions, that from a belief that he will soon be called on to wear a uniform in public, and to strike terror into the hearts of the enemies of his country.

Let The Mourners Mourn.

"It has been suggested that the conference has assembled for the purpose of perfecting plans by which one of the conferees can obtain a lucrative office. This is possible, but unlikely. So much has already been done to award faithful political workers, so many places have been given away, so lavish has been the expenditure of partisan gratitude, that few places remain which a man who rates his abilities somewhat higher than their par value would care to take. It is more probable that this is a simple meeting of the mourners, who have assembled to lament that the work which appeared to be finished in November has been carried on by a democratic congress for three months longer, to examine the political landscape for an oasis of democratic hope. It would be both unseemly and unprofitable to intrude at such a time, to interrupt with speculation such a natural flow of grief."

In the mean time it is said that the secretary of the navy is preparing to fit out a torpedo boat with two legs of mutton sails and send the general and his uniform to Spain in the capacity of government bouncer. But as the newspapers say that Secretary Gresham does not intend to bully that nation it is to be hoped that no such heroic measures will be adopted and thus allow the gentle Spaniard to live a little while longer.

FAVOR CORRUPT PRACTICE BILL

H. P. Richardson Writes to the Milwaukee Sentinel Answering Gen. Winkler

H. P. Richardson who is now practicing law in Milwaukee has written the following letter to the Milwaukee Sentinel:

You published today, March 18, a letter from Gen. F. C. Winkler against the Corrupt Practices bill and urges that the enforcement of the act is impracticable. Some of Gen. Winkler's points go against any advancement in the law. He objects that this act tries to "enforce higher morality" and enlarge the list of penal offenses. But is it not rather to prevent lower morality in the form of increased bribery? It is generally admitted that the corrupt use of money in elections has increased of late years. But if this act sought a higher morality, thus enlarging the list of penal offenses, has not every growth of the law the same purpose, i. e., to enforce the moral resolve of the collective body in cases covered before only individually and by a minority of the whole? The penal list has always grown. So General Winkler says the act makes criminal what is reprehensible but not of the nature of crime. But crimes which are mala prohibita, without being mala per se, were always so created because of the dire consequences resulting from acts in themselves merely reprehensible (perhaps not that) and the serious corruption resulting from these reprehensible acts are now apparent. Then the act is compared to a prohibitory liquor law, but such law is aimed to protect the citizen against himself more than the state against the citizen.

General Winkler does not wish to "disgrace the dignity of law by enacting one which is futile." But is an attempt at purification, a disgrace even if it should fail? It is a question of public sentiment sustaining the act. If the people enact it can they not sustain it, and if the legislature passes such a bill, is there better evidence that the public demands it? And just as Gen. Winkler wants corrupt practices lessened, so his personal right would assist to support the law when enacted. Doesn't it come to this, that the enactment will of itself materially aid to inform and hence create public sentiment to support so good a measure? The other view of awaiting a demand approaching unanimity, fails to reap advantage from the strength of the law to justify itself.

Briefly, for the purpose of some suggestion, it may be noted the bill declares it unlawful to give or receive reward for procuring an election or voting or refraining from voting, and also declares it unlawful to commit duress or put voters in fear. Both these provisions seem essentially declaratory of the common law, and so can hardly be objected to as impracticably ideal, besides which the independence of the elector is recognized at common law as vital and necessary to be preserved. Nor is it any more the independence of the elector than of the official which it has sought to reach—the wide spread custom of sapping all public officials. The crime of impersonating an elector would not seem difficult of detection, ordinarily. The provisions that officials elect shall file statements of the amounts and purposes of their campaign expenditures before entering upon their duties, upon which statements defeated candidates may take issue by affidavit, and after which suit may be brought to try title to the office, would seem to be a full provision, but to contain considerable power of self execution. And finally, the requirement that political committee treasurers shall file similar statements of expenditures for public inspection, under penalty, might, as has been suggested, put the conscientious to a disadvantage; but it is similar to laws directed against fraudulent and deceitful designs and, like them, may assist in building up a barrier to turn the tables on the wrong doers.

These are the main provisions in the bill, to which I have adverted partially because General Winkler said he had not the bill before him, and they would seem to be such that public spirit would converge upon the principles and practicality of such an act as being timely and in tally with the prevailing opinion of the country at large.

HINDES BRO'S FIND MAKES SALEM BOOM

STRIKING NATURAL GAS HAS MADE GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Janesville Men Used the Fluid in Their Engine Instead of Coal, But the Fire Box Not Being Adapted to It's Use, It Was Abandoned—Other Wells Spout.

James M. Hindes, whose sons compose the firms of Hindes Brothers, the well drillers, says that the discovery of gas near Kenosha where his boys were drilling a well has caused great excitement at that place. The first flow was found on the farm of Arthur Brown but now Ira Brown, a cousin of Arthur Brown has discovered gas on his farm which adjoins that of his cousin, at a distance of 200 feet. About six months ago Ira sunk a well and since that time there has been a gurgling sound coming from the well, but no attention was paid to it. When the discovery was made that there was gas on the farm of Arthur Brown the other cousin decided to make an investigation. The result was that he found a stronger flow of gas than was in the well on the farm of Arthur. The flow is so strong that the fire burns with great fierceness. John Sheen, a farmer, living near the Browns, has also discovered gas on his place, and he will endeavor to utilize it for his own use.

James McVey, who conducts a hotel two miles from the farm of Mr. Brown, has investigated the find and declares that it is not a pocket as was at first supposed, but a valuable find. He had laid pipes from the well on Arthur Brown's farm to the hotel and is using the gas for lighting the house. There is no diminish in the supply, and Mr. McVey is confident that there will be a boom when the true value of the find becomes known. The fact that Arthur Brown found the gas at a depth of only forty-eight feet makes it all the more apparent that the discovery is a good one. The real estate men in the vicinity are making the best of a good thing, and prices around Salem have advanced fifty per cent within the past two weeks.

"The boys used the gas instead of coal in running their drilling engine" said Mr. Hindes, "but they burned themselves so much that they finally gave it up as the engine was not arranged for that fuel."

THE GOLD OUTPUT.

Julian Ralph, one of the best known newspaper men in America, representing the Harper Brothers, made a recent tour through Colorado, and the gold mining districts of the Pacific States. As the result of his investigation, some interesting statistics are furnished.

Colorado, turned over to the populists in 1892 on account of the repeal of the Sherman act, produced in 1894 nearly $12,000,000 in gold, as against $4,000,000 in 1892, at least $3,000,000 more would have been added to the output, but for the Cripple Creek strike which lasted five months. In California the increase in gold is in about the same proportion. In both states and in fact throughout the silver belt, the yellow metal is found about 500 feet below the silver veins, and the new industry of deep mining, which is in its infancy, promises an inexhaustive store. Another fact has been demonstrated, namely that in the new machinery used for gold mining, the silver is produced so much cheaper, that at present prices it is more profitable than when sold to the government.

The fifteen states and territories that produce gold turned out $40,000,000 in 1894, as against $34,000,000 in 1893, with flattering prospects for a liberal increase this year.

It will be readily seen that with the $800,000,000 gold now in circulation and mines that are capable of adding to it at the rate of $50,000,000 a year, that the United States has little to fear in the way of a gold famine, if the affairs of government are properly administered.

On the other hand, if democracy had a corner on legislation for ten years to come, all the gold mines in christendom would be exhausted, and then the supply would be inadequate. A few grains of unalloyed common sense, mixed with the gold we have, will add much to the circulating medium, and general prosperity.

The republican party will be found equal to the emergency.

The Wilson bill went into effect August 28, 1894; from that date until January 1, 1895, four months and three days, the United States imported seventy-five million pounds of free wool, as against fourteen million pounds under the McKinley law during the same period in 1893.

American farmers have reason to remember Professor Wilson and the democratic party. There's nothing like "reform."

With a protective tariff, fifteen million American workmen were earning nine billion dollars a year. Reducing protection 25 per cent., reduced wages 25 per cent. and now the wage earning power of American labor is only $6,250,000 a year. Democracy be damned for all time to come is the popular verdict.

The Spanish government is evidently misled. Free trade and free plunder usually go together, but grape and cannister are not necessarily thrown in. It is a waste of ammunition on the part of Spain. Take anything you want of this democratic administration, but don't shoot.

With the Spanish to deal with on the water, and the Italians on shore,

Cleveland, Gresham, Uhl & Company are likely to have a busy summer.

The statesmanship of democracy will be in light demand for text books.

MAYOR JOHN THOROUGHGOOD
MAKES A STATEMENT.

He Will Accept the Republican Nomination if Offered Him, and Denies the Rumors That He Would Not Serve if Chosen To Head the Ticket—Other City News.

It having been reported about town that Mayor John Thoroughgood was not a candidate for re-election, a Gazette reporter called on him this morning and in response to the question he said:

"I do not know what the issue will be. I have not as yet named any delegates in my behalf, nor do I feel like doing so. Perhaps I have had all the honor there is in the office. I have found time to attend to municipal matters during my term, to the best of my ability and I suppose I have received my share of praise and censure. I am now quite willing that someone else should take my place. While there may be some reason for missionary work for aldermen, street commissioner clerk, etc., I do not think it should be so for the nomination of mayor. As I stated some time ago, I shall accept the nomination if given me, if not, perhaps my own business will get more of my attention."

CHANGE OUR WARDS UNDER THIS BILL

THE MEASURE IS ALL BUT A LAW NOW.

It Was Amended and Passed by the Senate, and Last Night Concurred in by the Assembly—Probably Janesville Will Not Act Until After the State Census Is Taken.

A bill in which Janesville is much interested has been passed by the senate with amendments, which were last evening adopted and the bill was concurred in the assembly.

It is the measure providing for the changing of wards. The bill was introduced by Senator Davis and gives common councils the right to charge ward boundaries and create new wards without the intervention of the legislature. All that is needed is a three-fourths vote of the council and a publication once a week for four weeks, and the only restriction made is that the wards so created must be compact. When a ward boundary has been fixed it cannot be changed for five years. Provision is made for changing a voting precinct to a ward, when it has sufficient population, and the initiative is to be by petition. Where a council refuses to act on a petition, any taxpayer may go into court to compel the council to act. The bill reads as follows:

Section 1. The common council of any city in the state of Wisconsin, which shall have been incorporated under special charter, shall have power to change the number and boundaries of the wards in such city by ordinance adopted by a vote of at least three-fourths of all the common council; provided, that such ordinance shall be introduced at a regular meeting of such common council, and before final action is taken thereon the same shall be published at least once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper printed and published in such city if there be one, otherwise in some newspaper to be designated by the common council; and when the boundaries and number of wards are fixed by any ordinance the number of such wards in such city and boundaries thereof, or of any of said wards, shall not be again changed for a period of two years, excepting by adding thereto such territory as may at any time be added to the city limits; and provided further that the territory of the wards shall be contiguous and compact, and that no ward having a population of less than two thousand shall be created in any city having a population of one hundred thousand or over, or less than fifteen hundred in any city having a population of ten thousand or over, or less than one thousand in any city having a population of less than ten thousand by last previous census taken by the United States or State of Wisconsin; and provided further, that this act shall not apply to any city having provision in its charter for the change of the number and boundaries of the wards therein.

Section 2. Whenever the number of wards in any city shall be changed in the manner aforesaid, and a new ward or wards created, such new ward or wards shall have the same number of aldermen, supervisors and ward officers, and shall be in all respects subject to the provisions of the charter of such city the same as wards created by such charter.

Section 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

No action will be taken by the Janesville council, it is said, if the bill passes, until after the state census has been taken. Assemblyman Wolf exhibited the feeling of the country districts towards the measure by saying that it was simply intended to give the city more representation on county boards. The substitute was adopted and the rules suspended and the amended bill concurred in.

LETTER WAS ABOARD THE ELEE.
Water Soaked Epistle Comes To A Janesville German Family.

A curiosity was received at the Janesville postoffice yesterday. It was a letter taken from the wreck of the German steamer Elee, which went down in the North Sea some weeks ago. Divers have been down into the ship securing the treasure and mails and this letter was one so recovered.

"The letter was addressed to a German in this city," said one of the postoffice officials. "We cannot give you the name or any of the details, except that it was written and mailed in Germany." The letter, while it is in fairly good condition now, has been thoroughly water soaked, and is wrinkled and stuck together. In just what condition the contents will be found can only be ascertained when it is opened, but the ink has run together.

SMITH'S HOME WAS IN DANGER
Narrow Escape From a Fire Loss in the Second Ward.

The home of John Smith, Oak Lawn, narrowly escaped destruction by fire this morning. The family built a smudge in the smoke house for the curing of meat. The house took fire and was destroyed, setting fire to some hay near by. It was discovered in time to prevent the home from being destroyed.

NO RAIN FOR EMPTY CISTERNS
Many Housewives Were Disappointed Because No Moisture Came.

Many Janesville housekeepers, whose cisterns have been dry for weeks, smiled last evening when they read Weather Clerk Burnham's predictions for today. The clear, frosty air which greeted them this morning dispelled all their hopes and the good housewife wondered what ailed Mr. Burnham's forecasting machinery.

THE COURT'S WORK ON THIS GLAD DAY

ALLEGED CAR THIEVES GET AN ADJOURNMENT.

Their Attorney, William Smith, Desired To Look Over the Papers Before They Entered Their Plea to the Charge Against Them—Blind Man Sent to the Poor House.

The information filed in the municipal court by District Attorney Jackson this morning, charges James Franklin, Robert Crowley and Frank Flynn with burglarizing a car belonging to the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company of property valued in the aggregate at $861.59. A schedule of the goods taken is given in the information, consisting in great part of silks, dress goods and clothing. There was also a barrel of whisky valued at $63.72, and a box of books.

"James Franklin, Robert Crowley and Frank Flynn what say you to this information, guilty or not guilty?" Clerk Williams asked.

"Hold on a moment. We would like a little time to examine this paper," said Attorney William Smith.

Judge Phelps inquired how long a time he desired, and Mr. Smith replied that he would like until tomorrow morning. District Attorney Jackson raised no objection and the time was granted. Sheriff Appleby returning the defendants to the county jail.

The case will come up again at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

John Baker is doubly unfortunate. He is blind, and besides he is without the means of support. He was taken in charge this morning by Patrolman Hogan, and on being brought into the municipal court was sent to the county poor house for sixty days.

A stranger giving his name as Henry Lawson was found wandering around the streets this morning and as he seemed "off" he was put in jail.

Mrs. E. H. Brooks and daughter Leonese left this noon for Lake Geneva, where they will visit relatives.

BABY CONTEST OPEN BALLOTS IN DEMAND

MUCH INTEREST IS SHOWN IN THE CONTEST.

Five Shares of Stock in the Rock County Building Loan and Savings Association Will be Given the Winner June 1—Value at Maturity Is $500 and It Is Non Assessable.

The polls for The Gazette contest for the babies is now open and the ballot will be found at the close of this article and will run until June 1, when the contest will close. Much interest is centered in The Gazette's offer to present the baby who gets the highest number of votes with $500 worth of stock in the Rock County Building Loan and Savings Association. It is a prize worth getting, for naturally it will be worth just half a thousand dollars. That will be a nice nest egg if kept at interest after maturity until the child becomes old enough to want to use it. It will buy a building lot. It will buy a piano and the lessons necessary to play upon it. It is more than many people are able to save in a life time.

Of course all the mothers and fathers want it for their babe. How to get it is told below:

The polls opened this morning and will remain open until June 1. The baby that receives the most ballots in that time will receive a certificate calling for these five shares of stock. There are no dues to be paid, no assessments to be met, no installments to provide for. The stock stands for $500 in cash and on its maturity, which will be in nine and one-third years, the money will be ready. The prize is a handsome one—it is well worth winning and the conditions of the ballot are as follows:

From March 1 until June 1, a coupon will be printed in each issue of The Gazette.

Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

Out the ballot out (trimming on the dotted lines.) Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Ballot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

The baby who receives the largest number of votes will receive five shares of stock in the Rock County Building & Savings Association, cash value, $500 at maturity.

The contest will close June 1 at 9 p. m., and the stock will be delivered as soon as the count of votes is completed.

Any non-subscriber who will subscribe for The Gazette and pay in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 350 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six months, 900 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one year, 2,000 votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is also entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day and vote in the regular manner.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

No votes can be transferred from one candidate to another after being registered in this office.

Candidates must not be more than three years of age March 1, 1895, and must live in Janesville.

THE BALLOT.

The Publishers of "The Janesville Gazette" will give 5 Shares of stock in the Rock County Building, Loan & Savings Association to the Baby who receives the largest number of ballots.

Increases the discomfort of the voyager. But even when the weather is not tempestuous he is liable to sea sickness. They who traverse the "giga-tic wetness" should be provided with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which quiet disordered stomachs with a refreshing and certain effect. To the hurtful influence of a tropic, malarious or too rigorous or damp climate, as well as to the baneful effects of unwholesome diet and bad water, it is a reliable antidote. Commercial travelers by sea or land, mariners, miners, western pioneers, and all who have to encounter vicissitudes of climate and temperature, should be in possession of the best safeguard. It prevents rheumatism and pulmonary attacks, it counteracts the effects of cholera and it is an efficient defense against all forms of malaria. It can be depended upon in dyspepsia, liver and kidney trouble.

Killed by a Black Canada Lynx.

Ernest Rogers was walking in the woods near Frewsburg, N. Y., the other day, when he heard his dogs in savage combat with something. He hurried to the spot with an ax and got there in time to see one of his dogs ripped open and hurled ten feet away by the animal they were fighting. The battle was going on in the cavity made by the upturned roots of a tree, and the wild animal had backed under the roots. The remaining dog made a dash for it, and the animal, of a kind that Rogers had never seen before, sprang out and closed with him. This gave Rogers his opportunity and he knocked the animal's brains out with the ax. It was much bigger than a wildcat, nearly black, with claws two inches long and very sharp, a stumpy tail, and long, erect tufts on the tips of its ears. Rogers dragged the animal to the village, where it was pronounced a black Canada lynx. This is an animal rarely seen out of its native Canadian woods. It weighed forty-eight pounds. It killed one dog outright and would have made short work of the other but for the timely arrival of Rogers and his ax.

An advertisement in a New York daily stated that "a one-legged man would learn of something to his advantage" by calling at a certain address. A curious individual called and met the advertiser, a man who had lost his right leg. He said: "If I can find a man who has lost the other leg and wears the same size shoe that I do we can whack up, and by buying our shoes together we would save considerable."

Pistol Practice in Texas. "We have 15,010 mutilated and worn silver dollars in our vault," said a sub-treasury official. "We also have 500,000 half-dollar, quarter and dime pieces which have become too thin for use. It is a curious thing that the mutilated dollars that we receive from Texas are deeply indented. This is a result of the target practice in Texas. The crack shots down there think that a silver dollar is the best kind of a mark. Do we give a good dollar for a mutilated one? That depends upon the extent of the mutilation. We have a discretionary power in this respect."

WORKING GIRLS.

WILLING, ABLE, AND AMBITIOUS,

But Often Held Back by an Illness
They do not Understand.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]
A young and intelligent working-girl of Brooklyn, N. Y., graphically pictures the working-girl's life.
Day in and day out, month after month, she toils. She is the bread-winner of the family, and must work that others may live. Rain or shine, warm or cold, she must get to her place of employment sharp on time. With the sunshine and gladness all crushed out of her life, she goes on until she falls.

Oh! this picture only one of thousands. Some work in cramped positions, but the great majority of working girls, so to speak, live on their feet.

Among the latter the symptoms of female diseases are early manifested by weak and aching backs, pains in the lower limbs and lower part of the stomach. The "monthly period" is irregular: with some profuse, with others a cessation. The sure symptom, leucorrhoea, is present, and with faintness, weakness, loss of appetite and sleep. She may be sure that a womb trouble assails her. She knows not where to go for aid.

Miss Mary Smylie, of 2078 Susquehanna Avenue, Kensington, Philadelphia, Pa., urges her fellow-working-girls to have faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She says: "I am a working-girl, and must stand eleven hours every day. I have suffered terribly from painful menstruation and kidney trouble; and my head was so dizzy I could hardly see. I began to take your Lydia Pinkham's Compound some time ago. It was highly recommended to me by a friend. Now I feel like a different girl: no more aches and pains. I am praising it to every one. Our Druggist sells lots of it."

SUNDAY'S SERMON

BY DR. TALMAGE

THE GREAT PREACHER DENOUNCES DIVORCE.

"What Therefore God Hath Joined Together Let No Man Put Asunder"—Congress Should Look After the Several State Laws.

HAT THERE ARE hundreds and thousands of infelicitous homes in America no one will doubt. If there were only one skeleton in the closet, that might be locked up and abandoned; but in many a home there is a skeleton in the hallway and a skeleton in all the apartments.

"Unhappily married" are two words descriptive of many a homestead. It needs no orthodox minister to prove to a badly mated pair that there is a hell; they are there now. Sometimes a grand and gracious woman will be thus incarcerated, and her life will be a crucifixion, as was the case with Mrs. Sigourney, the great poetess and the great soul. Sometimes a consecrated man will be united to a fury, as was John Wesley, or united to a vixen, as was John Milton. Sometimes, and generally, both parties are, to blame, and Thomas Carlyle was an intolerable scold, and his wife smoked and swore; and Froude, the historian, pulled aside the curtain from the lifelong squabble at Craigenputtock and Five, Cheyne Row.

Some say that for the alleviation of all these domestic disorders of which we hear, easy divorce is a good prescription. God sometimes authorizes divorce as certainly as he authorizes marriage. I have just as much regard for one lawfully divorced as I have for one lawfully married. But you know and I know that wholesale divorce is one of our national scourges. I am not surprised at this when I think of the influences which have been abroad militating against the marriage relation.

For many years the platforms of the country rang with talk about a free-love millennium. There were meetings of this kind held in the Cooper institute, New York; Tremont temple, Boston, and all over the land. Some of the women who were most prominent in that movement have since been distinguished for great promiscuity of affection. Popular themes for such occasions were the tyranny of man, the oppression of the marriage relation, women's rights and the affinities. Prominent speakers were women with short curls and short dress and very long tongue, everlastingly at war with God because they were created women; while on the platform sat meek men with soft accent and cowed demeanor, apologetic for masculinity, and holding the parasols while the termagant orators went on preaching the doctrine of free love.

That campaign of about twenty years set more devils into the marriage relation than will be exercised in the next fifty. Men and women went home from such meetings so permanently confused as to who were their wives and husbands that they never got out of their perplexity, and the criminal and civil courts tried to disentangle the illad of woes, and this one got alimony, and that one got a limited divorce, and this mother kept the children on condition that the father could sometimes come and look at them, and these went into poorhouses, and those went into an insane asylum, and those went into dissolution public life, and all went into destruction. The mightiest war ever made against the marriage institution was that free love campaign, sometimes under one name and sometimes under another.

Another influence that has warped upon the marriage relation has been polygamy in Utah. That was a stereotyped caricature of the marriage relation, and has poisoned the whole land. You might as well think that you can have an arm in a state of mortification and yet the whole body not be sickened, as to have those territories polygamized, and yet the body of the nation not feel the putrefaction. Hear it, good men and women of America, that so long ago as 1862 a law was passed by congress forbidding polygamy in the territories and in all the place where they had jurisdiction. Twenty-four years passed along and five administrations before the first brick was knocked from that fortress of libertinism.

Every new president in the inaugural tickled that monster with the straw of condemnation, and every congress stultified itself in proposing some plan that would not work. Polygamy stood more entrenched, and more brazen, and more puissant, and more braggart, and more infernal. James Buchanan, a much-abused man of his day, did more for the extirpation of this villainy than most of the subsequent administrations. Mr. Buchanan sent out an army, and although it was halted in its work, still he accomplished more than some of the administrations which did nothing but talk, talk, talk! At last, but not until it had poisoned generations, polygamy has received its death-blow.

Polygamy in Utah warred against the marriage relation throughout the land. It was impossible to have such an awful sewer of iniquity sending up its plasma, which was wafted by the winds north, south, east and west, without the whole land being affected by it.

Another influence that has warred against the marriage relation in this country has been a pustulous literature, with its millions of sheets every week choked with stories of domestic wrongs, and infidelities, and massacres, and outrages, until it is a wonder to me that there are any decencies, or any common-sense left on the subject of marriage. One-half of the news-stands of all our cities reeking with the filth.

"Now," say some, "we admit all these evils, and the only way to clear them out or correct them is by easy divorce." Well, before we yield to that cry, let us find out how easy it is now.

I have looked over the laws of all the states, and I find that while in some states it is easier than in others, in every state it is easy. The state of Illinois, through its legislature, recites a long list of proper causes for divorce, and then closes up by giving to the courts the right to make a decree of divorce in any case where they deem it expedient. After that you are not surprised at the announcement that in one county of the state of Illinois, in one year, there were 883 divorces. If you want to know how easy it is, you have only to look over the records of the states. In the city of San Francisco 333 divorces in one year; and in twenty years in New England 20,000. Is that not easy enough?

What we want in this country and in all lands is that divorce be made more and more and more difficult. Then people before they enter that relation will be persuaded that there will probably be no escape from it except through the door of the sepulchre. Then they will pause on the verge of that relation until they are fully satisfied that it is best, and that it is right, and that it is happiest. Then we shall have no more marriage in fun. Then men and women will not enter the relation with the idea that it is only a trial trip, and if they do not like it they can get out at the first landing. Then this whole question will be taken out of the frivolous into the tremendous, and there will be no more joking about the blossoms in a bride's hair than about the cypress on a coffin.

What we want is that the congress of the United States change the national constitution so that a law can be passed which shall be uniform all over the country, and what shall be right in one state shall be right in all the states, and what is wrong in one state will be wrong in all the states.

How is it now? If a party in the marriage relation gets dissatisfied, it is only necessary to move to another state to achieve liberation from the domestic tie, and divorce is effected so easy that the first one party knows of it is by seeing in the newspaper that Rev. Dr. Somebody on March 17, 1895, introduced in a new marriage relation a member of the household who went off on a pleasure excursion to Newport or a business excursion to Chicago. Married at the bride's house. No cards. There are states of the Union which practically put a premium upon the disintegration of the marriage relation, while there are other states, like our own New York state, that had for a long time the pre-eminent idiosyncrasy of making marriage lawful at twelve and fourteen years of age.

The congress of the United States needs to move for a change of the national constitution, and then to appoint a committee—not made up of single gentlemen, but of men of families, and their families in Washington—who shall prepare a good, honest, righteous, comprehensive, uniform law that will control everything from Sandy Hook to the Golden Horn. That will put an end to brokerages in marriages. That will send divorce lawyers into a decent business. That will set people agitated for many years on the question of how shall they get away from each other to planning how they can adjust themselves to the more or less unfavorable circumstances.

More difficult divorce will put an estoppel to a great extent upon marriage as a financial speculation. There are men who go into the relation just as they go into Wall street to purchase shares. The female to be invited into the partnership of wedlock is utterly unattractive, and in disposition a suppressed Vesuvius. Everybody knows it, but this masculine candidate for matrimonial orders, through the commercial agency or through the county records, finds out how much estate is to be inherited, and he calculates it. He thinks out how long it will be before the old man will die, and whether he can stand the refractory temper until he does die, and then he enters the relation; for he says: "If I can not stand it, then through the divorce law I'll back out." That process is going on all the time, and men enter the relation without any moral principle, without any affection, and it is as much a matter of stock speculation as anything that transpired yesterday in Union Pacific, Illinois Central or Delaware & Lackawanna.

Now, suppose a man understood, as he ought to understand, that if he goes into that relation there is no possibility of his getting out, or no probability, he would be more slow to put his neck in the yoke. He would say to himself: "Rather than a Caribbean whirlwind with a whole fleet of shipping in its arms, give me a zephyr off fields of sunshine and gardens of peace."

Rigorous divorce law will also hinder women from the fatal mistake of marrying men to reform them. If a young man of 25 years of age or 30 years of age has the habit of strong drink fixed on him, he is as certainly bound for a drunkard's grave as that a train starting out from Grand Central depot at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning is bound for Albany. The train may not reach Albany, for it may be thrown from the track. The young man may not reach a drunkard's grave, for something may throw him off the iron track of evil habit; but the probability is that the train that starts to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock for Albany will get there, and the probability is that the young man who has the habit of strong drink fixed on him before 25 or 30 years of age will arrive at a drunkard's grave. She knows he drinks, although he tries to hide it by chewing cloves. Everybody knows he drinks. Parents warn, neighbors and friends warn. She will marry him, she will reform him.

If she is unsuccessful in the experiment, why then the divorce law will emancipate her, because habitual drunkenness is a cause for divorce in Indiana, Kentucky, Florida, Connecticut and nearly all the states. So the poor thing goes to the altar of sacrifice. If you will show me the poverty-struck homes in any city, I will show you the homes of the women who married men to reform them. In one case out of ten thousand it may be a successful experiment. But have a rigorous divorce law, and that woman will say: "If I am affianced to that man, it is for life."

A rigorous divorce law will also do much to hinder hasty and inconsiderate marriages. Under the impression that one can be easily released, people enter the relation without inquiry and without reflection. Romance and impulse rule the day. Perhaps the only ground for the marriage compact is that she likes his looks and he admires the graceful way she passes around the ice cream at the picnic! It is all they know about each other. It is all the preparation for life. A woman that could not make a loaf of bread to save her life will swear to cherish and obey. A Christian will marry an atheist, and that always makes conjoined wretchedness; for if a man does not believe there is a God, he is neither to be trusted with a dollar nor with your lifelong happiness. Having read much about love in a cottage, people brought up in ease will go and starve in a hovel.

By the wreck of ten thousand homes, by the holocaust of ten thousand sacrificed men and women, by the hearthstone of the family which is the cornerstone of the state, and in the name of that God who hath set up that institution and who hath made the breaking of the marital oath the most appalling of all perjuries, I implore the congress of the United States to make some righteous, uniform law for all the states and from ocean to ocean, on this subject of marriage and divorce.

Let me say to the hundreds of young people in this house this afternoon, before you give your heart and hand in holy alliance, use all caution; inquire outside as to habits, explore the disposition, scrutinize the taste, question the ancestry, and find out the ambitions. Do not take the heroes and the heroines of cheap novels for a model. Do not put your lifetime happiness in the keeping of a man who has a reputation for being a little loose in morals, or in the keeping of a woman who dresses fast. Remember that while good looks are a kindly gift of God, wrinkles or accident may despoil them. Remember that Byron was no more celebrated for his beauty than for his depravity. Remember that Absalom's hair was not more splendid than his habits were despicable. Hear it, hear it! The only foundation for happy marriage that has ever been or ever will be is good character.

Ask God whom you shall marry, if you marry at all. A union formed in prayer will be a happy union, though sickness pale the cheek, and poverty empty the bread tray, and death open the small graves, and all the path of life be strewn with thorns, from the marriage altar with its wedding march and orange blossoms clear on down to the last farewell at that gate where Isaac and Rebecca, Abraham and Sarah, Adam and Eve, parted.

And let me say to you who are in this relation, if you make one man or woman happy you have not lived in vain. Christ says that what he is to the church you ought to be to each other; and if sometimes through difference of opinion or difference of disposition, you make up your mind that your marriage was a mistake, patiently bear and forbear, remembering that life at the longest is short, and that for those who have been badly mated in this world death will give quick and immediate bill of divorcement written in letters of green grass on quiet graves. And perhaps, my brother, my sister—perhaps you may appreciate each other better in heaven than you have appreciated each other on earth.

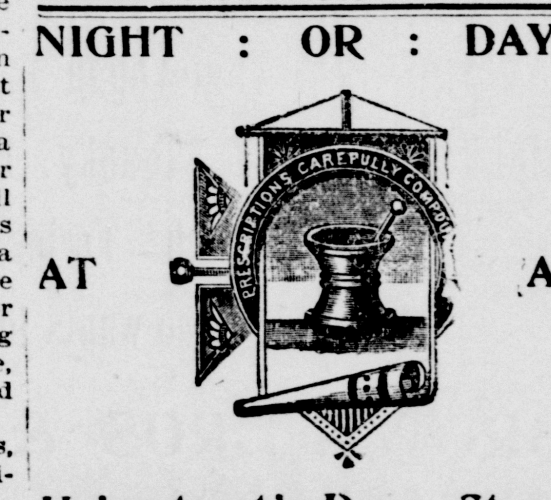

In the "Farm Ballads" our American poet puts into the lips of a repentant husband, after a life of married perturbation, these suggestive words: And when she dies I wish that she would be laid by me, And lying together in silence, perhaps we will agree, And if ever we meet in heaven, I would not think it queer If we loved each other better because we quarreled here.

And let me say to those of you who are in happy married union, avoid first quarrels; have no unexplained correspondence with former admirers; cultivate no suspicions; in a moment of bad temper do not rush out and tell the neighbors; do not let any of those gadabouts of society unload in your house their baggage of gab and little-tattle; do not stand on your rights; learn how to apologize; do not be so proud, or so stubborn, or so devilish that you will not make up. Remember that the worst domestic misfortunes and most scandalous divorce cases started from little infelicities. The whole piled-up train of ten rail cars telescoped and smashed at the foot of an embankment one hundred feet down came to that catastrophe, by getting two or three inches off the track. Some of the greatest domestic misfortunes and the wide-resounding divorce cases have started from little misunderstandings that were allowed to go on and go on until home, and respectability, and religion, and immortal soul went down in the crash, crash!

And, fellow-citizens as well as fellow-Christians, let us have a Divine rage against anything that wars on the marriage state. Blessed institution! Instead of two arms to fight the battles of life, four. Instead of two eyes to scrutinize the path of life, four. Instead of two shoulders to lift the burden of life, four. Twice the energy, twice the courage, twice the holy ambition, twice the probability of worldly success, twice the prospects of heaven. Into the matrimonial bower God fetches two souls. Outside that bower room for all contentions, and all bickerings, and all controversies, but inside the bower there is room for only one guest—the angel of love. Let that angel stand at the floral doorway of this Edenic bower with drawn sword to hew down the worst foe of that bower—easy divorce. And for every paradise lost may there be a paradise regained. And after we quit our home here may we have a brighter home in heaven, at the windows of which this moment are familiar faces watching for our arrival and wondering why so long we tarry.

IT STOPS THE PROGRESS of Consumption. The makers of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are certain of it. They've proved it for years past—and they're willing to sell it with the agreement that if it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, they'll return the money. Consumption is that scrofulous condition that comes from impure blood. The "Discovery" prevents it, if taken in time; cures it completely, if you haven't waited too long; gives relief and comfort, even in advanced cases. Use it in severe, lingering Coughs, Asthma, Weak Lungs, and every Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affection.

D. C. ROSENBAUM, Esq., of Dutch, Grainger Co., Tenn., writes as follows: "I had been going down in strength and weight for months. I was not able to stir, and I smothered very often. After taking 'Discovery' my cough was relieved, I could walk three miles without trouble, catching cold didn't distress me now. As long as I live I'll praise 'G. M. D.'"

OTIS SKINNER AS "SHYLOCK."

Talented Interpretation of Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice at The Grand.

Otis Skinner's Shylock is all that can be asked for. This was the universal opinion of those who saw that talented actor at the Myers Grand last night. The Merchant of Venice gave excellent opportunities to an excellent company and the performance was much enjoyed by a large audience. Of course Mr. Skinner is the star of the company and deserves all the good things that can be said of him, but there are others in the cast who acquit themselves with credit, notably Frederick Mosely as Bassanio, John Burgess Weeks, as Gratiano; Frank L. Sylvester as Lorenzo, the romantic lover, R. Payton Carter as Lancelot Gobbo, and Sarah Trux as Portia.

NEWS OF WISCONSIN TOWNS

Mrs. Ryan, a woman of about eighty years of age, who has been living for the past six years alone on a farm in the town of Lebanon, about eight miles north of New London, was found dead in her home, and by the disarranged appearance of the furniture foul play is suspected. The person who made the discovery did wait to make an examination, but hastened to the city and the coroner was notified.

The Rev. Perry Miller, pastor of the Methodist church at Marinette, delivered a very forcible sermon on gambling at Turner opera house. He personally visited several of the gambling dens and in his sermon he aired his views concerning them.

The women of Williamson Relief corps of Dodgeville have organized and commenced the prosecution of a movement to erect a $10,000 soldiers monument for Iowa county, to be placed in the court house square.

A stock company is to be formed at Green Bay, to build a new opera house.

CHARLES RATH, an Appleton cigar manufacturer, has disappeared from his home.

On March 1 there were 630,000 tons of coal at the head of the lakes.

CYCLING is to have a boom in Appleton the coming summer.

Baby Contest.

Interest in the baby contest is increasing every day and new names are being added to the list. If you want your baby entered for the prize send in the name. Fiveshares of stock in the Rock County Building Loan and Savings association is well worth making an effort to secure. It means $500 in money in 1904 only nine years away. The association is one of the best ever organized. Its officers are well known to Janesville people and the stock is as reliable as bank stock. Somebody's baby will receive five shares of the stock the first of June as the result of the Gazette contest.

Mrs. Hart who has covered the globe with her notebook, declares the English people to be the most garrulous and quarrelsome of any she has encountered. She says there is more bickering and distemper in the Englishman's family and more homes are made unhappy by domestic squabbles than in any other of the nations she has visited. This condition she attributes chiefly to the Anglo-Saxon's fondness for a meat diet. She says the great meat eating people are notably ill-tempered. We are only animals, and the sequence of meat and fits, as demonstrated by the animal kingdom, has a significance in relation to the human animal. Mrs. Hart has gone further than this, and has studied the gentle Japanese, the mild Mongolian, and other light-living races, which research confirms her ideas touching flesh-eating and family jars.
